

FAMILY DISCIPLESHIP 101 - THE NAMES OF GOD

JEHOVAH ELOHIM

Scripture Memory: Romans 11:33-36*

Monday Tuesday Wednesday Thursday Friday Saturday Sunday

Lesson:

Let's return to Genesis 2. Moses in his writing style tends to give us the basic facts of the story (Chapter 1) and then returns to give us the details (Chapter 2). In looking at Genesis 2, we need to understand that we are no longer reading day by day creation as much as certain facts about things so that there is context for the creation of man.

1. According to Genesis 2:4, what is the next passage going to be about? _____

The next passage will cover the creation particulars, the fall of man, and how that affected the creation ending in Genesis 5:1.

Now getting on to the particulars.

2. According to Genesis 2:5-7, what two things were necessary for the plants? _____

What two things did the LORD God make to take care of the need of the plants? _____

Was man made for the plants or the plants made for man? _____

3. According to Genesis 2:8-15, what did the LORD God make next? _____

List 5 descriptions given about the garden. _____

4. Why did the LORD God put the man in the garden? _____

In creating man, the LORD God knew that man would have needs and took care of all of them in His creation. What need of man did the LORD God meet in the garden so far? _____
